

A hand-drawn wireframe of a mobile application interface. The screen is divided into several sections. At the top is a large empty rectangular box. Below it, the name 'Antonio Bruchi' is written in a large, bold font, followed by 'A Subtitle' in a smaller font. Under the subtitle are four rectangular buttons arranged in a 2x2 grid, labeled 'home', 'resume', 'projects', and 'contact'. Below the buttons is the text 'who i am'. This is followed by a section containing three lines of text, flanked by left and right arrow symbols. The text includes a paragraph with a red 'text' label, a blue 'unassigned link', a second row of text with a blue 'web link', and a line mentioning an icon with a plus sign. At the bottom of the screen is another large empty rectangular box.
